WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1862.

WHERE WAS THE FINANCE MINISTER ?

POPULARITY is the grand vice of us all. We accept invitations, rush off in Railroad trains, or attend public dinners not so much from any intrinsic benefit to be derived, as from a secret desire to go with the crowd, and be identified with the majority.

Though the thinking few may contemptuously smile at this weakness, and, reclining in their libraries, reflect upon this miserable state of society which requires such steps to gain applause, it must be admitted that there are occasions when the most exalted citizens must condescend, and lend their presence to ceremonies for which they entertain neither sympathy nor interest.

A public man, however, is public property. If he is employed by the people, the nation unanimously repays him, his acts are open to criticism and though he may not bend to the public he must bow to a free press.

At the interesting ceremony of inauguration of the Buenos Aires Northern R.R. we remarked the absence of the National Finance Minister. We will not comment upon the inexcusable bad taste betrayed by this worthy gentleman in absenting himself upon such an occasion, since he may have been indisposed, but we must remark that as it is impossible to suppose that he was not invited, he might at least have been so condescendingly polite as to send an apology, with request that it should be made public.

We know very well the high position which Dr Sarsfield occupies amongst us. We comprehend also the multiplicity of his labors, which necessarily attend the office which he at present holds. But high though his position, and arduous his occupation we cannot forbear passing the severest strictures on a minister who fails to identify himself with an undertaking so peculiarly interwoven with the prosperity of the country and intimate effect upon its finances.

If men will accept public office, they should not shrink from the obligations and responsibilities attached thereto, and if they wish to escape public censure, they must conform to public will.

If our Finance Minister was indisposed, we regret it; but if he purposely absented himself, or oblivious of his position, neglected his duty, we will not neglect ours, nor omit to call public attention to such apparent official dereliction.

ORIENTAL TROUBLES.

We have received letters from Fray Bontos, which mention grave disturbances and a reign of terror in that neighbourhood. Contributions, in the anxiety to raise large levies, presses foreigners as well as natives; the militia is under active service in the di tricts of S nches and Colon, and has to encamped at Ya guarron. Meantime no passports are given either to Entre-Rianos or Portenos, of whom some 2 were refused on application (Nov 30th).

This noted commissary, Dr Leonaro Olondo, was the person who drove the foreigners north of the Rio Negro, in 1845, at the time of the foreign intervention, to Ville Blanca, in the river Quiguay. After this he served with Ortiz, during the siege of Montevideo. Not long since he was charged with killing a Brazilian, at the head of the River Arapey, which obliged him to fly from thence, he being commissary at the time. He then became commissary at Sanchez, where, amongst other arbitrary measures that he ordered, was the hanging of an Englishman by the middle, from an ombu tree, at the Belladero to oblige him to confess; he was kept hung up until he fainted, and was then lowered down and brought to life by a bucket of water; this was repeated without his confessing (some robbery) ; he most likely he had nothing to confess!

On the 9.h of November last, a pilot of the river went to complain that another pilot drew a knife to him; he was ordered to appear next day, but the wind being fair and his vessel ready for sea, he proceeded to Montevideo on his return, a few days after, he presented himself again, but was placed in the stocks for contempt, and was obliged to pay three gold ounces to get out.

In the same week, a Paisano stuck a knife into a Catalan bricklayer; both were put in prison; the native, who gave the wound, was fined 20 pats. the poor fellow, who received the wound, was fined 20 pats.

And this is the best commissary that Penilla could find to send to the most laborious and thriving town in the Banda Oriental!

HORRIBLE MILITARY OUTRAGE

Within four squares of the Oficina de Setiembre, a poor but good and industrious Italian family (consisting of father, mother and eight children) has resided for some years, earning a hard living by cultivating a little square of land, and selling the vegetables raised thereon; they are well known to their neighbours from their uniformly industrious, and quiet behaviour,—all labouring daily on the ground. Three days since, about 2 P. M., a soldier belonging to the Artillery corps, while straying about the lane, passed the house, returned and entered the gate of the Italian. The wife and children were indoors, and the Italian was sleeping a cata nuzo, a fig-tree; the soldier sat down a few minutes beside him, and then got up and selected a large brick, with which he struck the sleeping man a violent blow on side of his head, fracturing his skull and en ding a horrible wound. The man rose staggering and screaming, his wife and children ran out, and some neighbours hearing their screams went to their assistance and found the Italian streaming with blood, and in an almost hopeless condition. The soldier ran off, but peons of the quinta of the Señor C—s, pursued and traced him through the long grassy presently they found him crouched, and following him to one of them shortly came up with him—he sprung up with his knife but the peon who was armed with his pitchfork made him surrender. The comisario who followed with his vigilante then marched the villain, whose only reply was "hecho mi gusto, queria matarlo." This same soldier only a day or two before stabbed another man twice and he is also now in a very precarious condition.

We are assured that frequent outrages are being committed by the soldiers from the Artillery Corps and that notwithstanding that several of them have been arrested by the comisario he is an active man they have almost invariably escaped without any punishment, owing to interference on the part of the commanding officer.

Now here is a very horrible case in point—the Italian is in a most precarious state and his poor family reduced at once to misery. The sol ier is arrested but will he be punished at once severely as he deserves." Now stabbing one man and butchering another in cold blood for mere amusement, without any provocation or even any presence of mind. Is his last victim deserves the utmost penalty of the law. But, will he punished at once? and, if not where is the security for life? Without active and much-esteemed Minister of War, General Emilio Obes, at once take cognizance of the state of the Artillery Corps?

He has already, we believe, had some complaints respecting it, and we understand that cases of reprimand. But much more than this is required. Are these soldiers, who are generally the refuse of society—many of them probably taken from the cared, and sent to three or more years' service in the line—to be allowed to roam about at large, and commit the grossest outrages with impunity ? Is it fit that they should be thrown on society? Ought they not to be strictly confined to the barracks, and sought not all bad characters in the corps to be placed under the strictest discipline and surveillance ?

The family of this unfortunate Italian calls for justice, and they ought even to be assisted in their need by the authorities. We hear that a subscription amongst the neighbours has been set on foot to meet their most urgent and immediate wants.

(Guaranteed.)

EDITOR'S TABLE.

THE news from Europe is digested, the inauguration of the railway is over, the first anniversary of THE STANDARD is gone by and we have all sobered down to business once more.

We commend to the attention of our readers a horrible military outrage, which will be found in another column. Over and over again we have called public attention to the scandalous practice of allowing soldiers and vigilantes to be going through town with side-arms; but everything we say on that subject is unheeded. Even last Sunday, did we not behold the unfortunate half-cooked sentry on guard over the statue. Is not the Chief of the Police the same old 63. 8d. to-day, although we have been calling for reform until we have become tired out. If 1862 closes without something being done, we will give the matter up as hopeless.

The contract for the building of the Chascomus Railway has arrived per Saintonge, and has been laid before the Government for approbation. Thus we consider a very judicious step, so that we have no disputes hereafter. As soon as it passes the Government House, we hope to see the first sod turned.

The rate of interest has been so reduced by the Bank that money is actually cheaper in Buenos Ayres than in London: 4 per cent interest on paper or specie in B A is a thing hardly credible and shows clearly that the bank knows no more how to invest its surplus funds than it does to sustain the credit of its paper.the general opinion is that this action on the part of the bank is done more from bravado to new institutions than anything else, but if Bank wants no money, the commerce of Buenos Aires is not so and as good security as the Casa de Moneda can be got at 9 p$. interest.

We call particular attention to the sale of 133 Negretts Rams on Friday next by Mr. Billinghurst—we understand they are sup ior animals, and in splendid condition.

European News

ENGLAND.

In London there has been a rainy repast from eleven a m.,till m dnight. The police authorities made prepar-tion to stop any meetings in the Park, but the weather again saved them any further trouble.

Previous to leaving Rheinbardtsden Her Majesty expressed a wish to see some of the natives of Thuringia dressed in their peculiar costume. Accordingly,several of the prettiest country girls were assembled dressed in their gayest Sunday attire.

The Ministers are expected to arrive in town, in order to meet the Cabinet Council summoned by Lord Palmerston on Thursday next, the 23d instant.

IRELAND.

It is with regret we have to record the death of Sir T. N. Redington, K. C. B., who died after a short illnes- on Saturday. The deced ed was the only son of the h'e Captain Christopher Reding on, and was in his forty-seventh year. In 1842 he married the eldest daughr er and co-heir of Mr. John H. Talbot, M. P., of Talbot Hall, in the county Wexford. Early in life he had ev y prospect of an eminent career, having after a very successful curric dum at St. Mary's Oscott College, repaired to Christ's College, Cambridge, at which he gained respectable honours. From 1837 to 1843he had the honour to represent Dundalk in the House of Commons. h served asa member of the Occupation of Land Commission of Ireland which the late Earl of Devon was chairman. In 1846 he was appointed Under-Secretary of S ate for Ireland; in 1847 a Commis ioner of Education [Ireland], and "ex officio" an Irish Poor-law Commissioner. As a member of Sir John Burgoyne's Relief Commission in 181 he rendered much active service, and in consequence of his great and unremitting civil services he was in 1849 nominated a Knight Commander of the Civil Division of the Bath nam-lately after Her Majesty's best wishes for land. Sr Thomas served as secretary to the Board of Control from December, 1852, to 1-56, when he accepted the Post of Commissioner of Inquiry respecting Lunatic Asylums in Ireland.

A Correspondent writes to-m—Sir Thomas received all the rites of the Church with the most edifying piety; and had the signal consolation of also receiving the Apostolic Benediction "in articulo mortis," transmitted to him by telegram, from the Holy Father.

RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 12.—The Northern Post of to-day says that the Council of the Empire has at present under consideration laws relating to a reorganisation of the police courts and to the commercial administration. The Duchy of the Governments are to be composed of delegates chosen by the various district assemblies, and are to represent all classes of the community. The annual meetings of the Governmental Duchy are to last for twenty-one days; those of the district assemblies for seven days. The Executive functions of every Government will be administered by a council of superior officers to be chosen from Warsaw, Oct. 12.—The state of siege has been raised in the Government districts of Lublin and Augustowith the exception of the towns of Lublin, Siwalki, and Siedlce. The council of the di-trict of Siedlce has been dissolved for exceeding its legal powers.

Both Russia and Poland are deeply disappointed at the result of the grand festival at Novogorod in celebration of the thousandth year of the Russian empire. The Russian people entert ined a lively hope that a constitution would be gran'ed to them; but it appears that the great old giant is yet far too young to be trusted with even an approach to free institutions. All that Russia got at Novogorod was an imperial compliment to the fidelity of the nobility a- compliment partly extorted by fear and partly by an inner consciousness that it was not merited. Poland, which also expected a handsome boon in the shape of concessions, got a piece of solemn mockery in the shape of an ukase about the confiscated proper y of political exiles. It is believed that both the nobles and the people of Russia will soon show their discontent at the present state of things.

ITALY.

Mazzini has issued a new proclamation, published in the Gazette de France. He asserts that the pardon up Victor Emmanuel, and that as the King now shows himself the enemy of Italian unity, he (Mazzini) considers himself once more "free to act." The manifesto is violent, and is regarded as an open declaration of war between the republican and monarchical parties. In France it is by some persons regarded as a threat that arguments of the knife and the bullet will now be employed.

Letters from Naples state that in order to deal with the brigands more effectually, 120 battalions (1,000 men each) of the national guard will soon be mobilised. These men will receive 10 day s military instruction every year, and will be subjected to military discipline. They are to be distributed over the different provinces and, in case of need, serve as common soldiers—a plan supposed to have been suggested by the late Count Cavour, and adopted in 1861, but rendered impossible through the very little confidence that could be placed in the men.

TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nct. 10.—The Mosque property is to be secularised. It is expected that this will result in a gain to the revenue of £7,000,000 sterling, a part of which will be appropriated for payment of the interest on the new Consolids, and the remainder for public works. The arrears of interest on the old Consolids are now being paid.

BUCHAREST, Oct. 14.—A number of Turkish families, numbering in all 500 persons, were despatched hence, on two occasions, 600 of them proceeding to Lompalanka, and the remaining 200 to Rossitz.

The Ameer Dost Mahomed had sufficient great loss at Bayambaug, but was advancing on Herat. It was rumoured that troops had been promised by the Shah of Persia for the defence of Herat. The Trope Bird appears to have foundered on the 6 h August. The Sirius picked up six of the Lascars and made them over to the Clifton, who brought them up to Calcutta. The captain and some of the crew have not been heard of, while it is feared that the chief officer and eleven of the crew were drowned in a boat which was swamped.

LATEST FROM U. STATES.

There are telegrams in town from the States to the 17th October. The change in London had advanced to 147 per cent premium,on gold 30 per cent, bales, B. Ayres dry, 25 cents per cwt, stock 300,000

Messrs. Slidell and Mason have published in the Paris papers a declaration that they have no official knowledge of their recall from Europe by the government of the Southern Confederacy. It may be that President Jefferson Davis does not deem it expedient to comply with the Confederate Congress's resolution, recommending that the Commissioners be recalled from Europe. But the latest accounts state that the Southern Congress has sent commissioners to Washington to arrange or negociate the terms of an honourable peace.

MEXICO.

Advices from Mexico state that satisfaction has been accorded at Tampico for insults recently offered to the Spanish flag, and to publish in the journals an apology to the Spanish Government and nation, with the alternative of six months' hard labour and fines. A Madrid letter says:—Our relations with France have greatly improved. I believe I am not wrong in stating that an understanding between the two respective Cabinets is likely to take place shortly. I am able to announce, as one of the first consequences of that understanding, the return to Paris of M. Mon as ambassador. General de la Concha has sent back the ladies of his family who accompanied him, and it is thought that his own departure will not be long delayed."

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

16, HACKINS HEY,
LIVERPOOL, 23RD OCTOBER, 1862.

Since our circular of the 7th instant, we have had a very brisk demand for Hides, and the Stock of Salted held here (including the late arrivals, 11,200 Hides not yet landed) is reduced to 25,607 Hides.

Buyers have cleared off most of the old stock (Hides that they would not look at a month ago) at full rates; and, although we do not quote any advance in price, the market is very firm.

The Leather Market is steady, but not in a condition to justify any advance in the price of the raw material

River Plate Horse Hides.—The transactions are small, owing to the very limited Stock being unsuitable for the requirements of the Trade.

Hair is dull, and Stock heavy of common and quality.

Horns scarce, for sales sixpence is nominal.

Tallow is very dull, and sales difficult to effect; Fine to good Stearine worth 46/6.

Sheepskins.—No change to report, Fine are worth 23/, Common grades Horse Hair.—Nothing to move of Mixed Horse for carpets would bring 23 1/2 to—

Bone Ash has not been so much asked and will be low, although a few cargoes of Rio Grande have been sold at £6 10 on a basis of 71 per cent; the price is now very difficult to obtain. River Plate Cargoes are worth 20/ 26/ to 26/6 to arrive Bones £6 14 per ton. There are cargoes afloat to be coming I week.
